Quality Improvement Scheme in schools

1151. SHRI EDUARDO FALEIRO: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the nodal scheme of Quality Improvement in Schools is a non-starter with the entire fund remaining unutilized in the current year;

(b) whether one implementing agency is getting more than 50 per cent of the total grant on environmental education for one State; and

(c) if so, the details of the grants given to NGOs on environmental education during the current and last three years and their percentages to the total utilization?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. VALLABHBHAI RAMJIBHAI KATHIRIA):(a) The scheme of Quality Improvement in Schools (QIS) has not yet been approved by the competent authority. However, the funds have been released under the scheme on existing pattern.

(b) and (c) Only during the year 2001-02 an amount of Rs. 130.94 lakhs was released to the Uttarakhand Seva Nidhi Paryavaran Shiksha Sansthan, Almora (Uttaranchal) out of the total grant of Rs. 260.00 lakhs representing 50.36% of total grant under the Scheme of Environmental Orientation to School Education. If we consider all the schemes like Science Education, Yoga Education etc. combined under the Quality Improvement in Schools, above amount constitutes a small share of the total grants by Ministry of Human Resource Development. The details of grants released to various NGOs during last three years and current year (till date) is annexed as Statement.
